

Gather your people. Share a meal. Explore your faith.

We dream of women across Dallas gathering their neighbors, coworkers, those that know God, and those that don't know about Jesus but want to hear more. Together, we'll share a meal and explore what it means to follow Jesus in a safe, non-intimidating context where women can bring their questions and wrestle it out. We'll share stories, ask questions, voice doubt, and hear from women with undeniable faith. Then we'll point to diverse, local churches in their area as resources to begin to explore what it means to follow Jesus.

Registration for IF:Citywide opens March 31st. We will not charge a set ticket price but ask that you give what you can. One ticket is good for two admissions so you can bring a friend who desires to explore their faith in Jesus. Our suggested donation amount is $25.
